(V.1)

Am9                      E7                      B7                      Em
Is this an interrupting time to tell you I'm not satisfied?
Am9                      E7                      B7                      Em
Is this an interrupting moment to mention I'm not qualified?
Am9                      E7                      B7                      Em
It's not like the problems ever go away, I've got enough fish in my bowl.
Am9                      E7                      B7                      Em
It's not that I actually need your love I got Yahweh inside my soul.

(CH.1)

A7sus4
But it's because you're like a thunderbolt, thunderbolt I tell you girl
A                                      C                                      D9
In this mystery, find a sanctuary, you and I got time upon our hands.
A7sus4                                      A
And this is laser-lit, razor-light and cutting girl, plans of what we lost in the deepness
C                      D
But you and I got time upon our hands, yeah.

(V.2)

Am9                                      E7                                      B7                                      Em
Now that you understand my position of mind you seem a lot more in control of yourself
Am9                                      E7                                      B7                                      Em
You're looking independent, in your own world, run parallel to me girl

Holding back is not what I want and cautions overdone,

With eyes that burn like the London fires, you only captivate my will.
